Typical 5e style homebrewing special snowflakes: you roleplay & refluff it. I see a few options along that path: Roleplay only: roleplay being blind, blindsight (through tremorsense, sensing auras or whatever) just removes the combat modifications with blindness. Done. Maybe your blindsight comes from sensing light through your skin instead of ...

The 5e blindsight rule is rather vague. The 3.5e rule for blindsight is more specific. However, neither really clarifies for me whether it is directional or omnidirectional. If it is the use of multiple other senses to see - such as a combination of hearing, smell, and tremorsense - I can see how it might have 360° capabilities.
