A new business rarely runs smoothly, and indeed the failure rate of new enterprises is so high that many would-be entrepreneurs prefer not to take the risk. Entrepreneurship and How to Establish Your Own Business gives you practical guidelines on how to develop your business ideas and establish your own successful enterprise.

"Did you know that, in South Africa, 70% to 80% of small businesses fail within the first five years of their establishment? Research indicates that this failure is often due to a lack of understanding of basic business concepts by the entrepreneur. In the competitive South African business environment, it is essential that aspiring entrepreneurs and new business owners have a solid foundation of knowledge on which to build sustainable businesses. Entrepreneurship and how to establish your own business (6th edition) is a foundational book covering the key areas of entrepreneurship and small business development."--Publisher's description.

A four-step process for developing business ideas and establishing an enterprise is laid out in this guide for business students and would-be entrepreneurs. Among the concepts presented are analyzing the small business and enterprise environment, focusing on the development of business ideas and a feasibility plan; testing the viability of the idea and creating a practical business plan, and familiarizing one-self with legal and other regulatory requirements prior to setting up the business. The book's interactive approach makes it particularly appropriate for self-study.

Non-market entrepreneurship' consists of all forms of entrepreneurship not being undertaken solely for purposes of profit maximization or commercialization. This work builds a theoretical edifice within the field of entrepreneurship and helps to establish and delineate the contours of the research field of non-market entrepreneurship.

This book is composed of practical tips to help Christian Business owners and entrepreneurs experience success.The most rewarding yet challenging thing to do in the life of a believer is to wholeheartedly trust that God is leading and that all HE is instructs for one to do will work together for the good.
