Finding Manana: A Memoir of a Cuban Exodus -- book review. The Mariel Boatlift of 1980 brought 125,266 Cubans to the United States. The influx was not officially sanctioned by Jimmy Carter's government, and Fidel Castro won the public relations war when he claimed that most of those who left Cuba for America were criminals and other anti-social elements.

Finding Manana: A Memoir of a Cuban Exodus -- book review
The fact that Ojito is a member of the Cuban exile community is an embarrassment to Cuban exiles everywhere. Her book, "Finding Manana", sidesteps any real criticism of Fidel Castro and unfairly/inaccurately villifies the Cuban exile community, with some quotes that were outright vicious.
