It lays out the early Gnostic teachings in esoteric symbolism designed to work upon the initiate's inner experience rather than being worked upon with the rational mind. Its imagery fosters contemplation intended to prepare a candidate for the Baptism of the Light in which union with the indwelling spark of the divine occurs.

Gnosis Of The Light: A Translation Of The Untitled ...

The Greatest Mystery is the source of the Light. The source of Light is the Christos. In the Gospel of John we also find the Christos being called the Word (Logos), which means the personal manifestation, not of a part of the Divine Nature, but the whole Deity, or Image. The Christos is the only Begotten of God.
